> scratches and a new wheel in the rear showed no signs of having collided with the sidewalk. Mr. Lord explained that he was driving homeward last night on King street when he saw a Japanese express wagon directly in front of him and on the wrong side of the street. To avoid a collision in getting past, he swung to one side and the wheels slipped on the paving, which was wet with rain. The car banged into the sidewalk and one wheel crumpled up. He was the only occupant of the car and was uninjured. This morning a new wheel was put on the car and the damage was speedily fixed up.

SMALL ESTATE WITHOUT HEIRS

Albert Steinke, who was a bookeeper in the Inter-Island ship chandlery, died in Honolulu on July 12 last. He was evidently a German, over fifty years of age at death, and had been living here for about nine years.

The man left a small amount of property in the hands of the Guardian Trust Company, but so far the company has been unable to get any definite statement of who his heirs are, anywhere. Everything in the company's power is being done to learn if Steinke left any heirs.
